

PSPP 338 Fruit Production

Fall (alternate even years) 3 credits Lecture

Prerequisite: PSPP 102

Modern production practices for all major temperate-zone tree and small fruit, including crop management, fruit crop growth and development, storage and post-harvest physiology. The class will include a discussion of rootstocks, grafting, pruning, trellising, and quality control as they impact today's fruit production system.